DISPUTES DUE AIRING LABOR-MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE MEETING

PRESIDENT UNLIKELY TO STEP IN DESPITE FAILURE OF COMMITTEES SO FAR

By WILLIAM NEEDHAM

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—Delgates to the labor-management conference emerge today from three weeks of committee controversy to air their differences in open session.

Certain that President Truman would not step in to steer deliberations, conference leaders faced possible heated debate on a series of lost causes—among them, CIO president Philip Murray's resolution urging general wage increases.

However, no specific recommendations on basic issues were expected from this afternoon's plenary session.

With this in mind, some public members had advocated White House intervention to spur action. But Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach told the executive committee yesterday Mr. Truman neither would intervene nor issue any instructions to the conferees.

No Agreement Reached

Hope that the conference would produce any important new approach to voluntary and peaceful settlement of labor strife died with disclosure that no agreement could be reached on fact-finding machinery.

Conference Secretary George W. Taylor said no reference was made in the fact-finding discussion to Schwellenbach's resort to this machinery in the current oil wage dispute. The labor Secretary has named three industrial relations experts to study issues in the controversy and report back in 30 days.

Taylor quoted labor members of the executive committee as objecting to fact-finding on the contention that it merely delayed the settlement of issues. He said industry members likewise were dubious about it.

The committee agreed unanimouly on a proposed "continuation committee," composed of leaders from the two industry and four labor groups at the conference. The committee would be semi-permanent, meeting as its members "see fit to discuss such matters as they may find mutually desirable."

DOUBLE FUNERAL SERVICES FOR TWO KILLED IN CRASH

Double funeral services for R. A. Ratliff, aged 62 years, and his son-in-law, C. M. Wood, about 45 years of age, both of Houston, are scheduled from the Assembly of God church Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with burial in Oakwood cemetery. The rites will be conducted by Rev. J. E. Enlow, minister of the church.

The men were fatally injured Tuesday night in an oil field truck collision near Houston, according to information received here. They were in the same truck transporting a boiler while the other truck, owned by the same company, was loaded with a huge pump.

Ratliff had resided in Corsicana for many years before moving to Houston several months ago.

Surviving Ratliff are his wife of Houston; two daughters, Mrs. C. M. Wood, Houston, and Mrs. Jack Moore, Corsicana; two sons, J. A. Ratliff, Corsicana, and Jesse L. Ratliff, U. S. Army; five stepchildren; a niece, Mrs. Thelma Dunlap, Corsicana, whom was reared by Mr. Ratliff, and other relatives.

Wood is survived by his wife of Houston; six children, Claudie, Richard, Lee, Geraldine Wood, a small daughter and another son whose names are not known here; four step-children, parents, two sisters and a brother.

The cortege is expected to arrive here Friday morning from Houston.

Corley Funeral Home will direct arrangements here.

British Announce Complete Occupation City Of Soerabaja

BATAVIA, Java, Nov. 29.—(AP)—The British command officially announced today the complete occupation of the Java naval base city of Soerabaja—the scene of bitter fighting in recent weeks between Indonesian Nationalists and British Indian troops—and said a local administration had been set up there under British control.

Military operations continued south of Soerabaja where 12 Indonesian guns were knocked out yesterday.

British authorities earlier had issued an ultimatum that any Indonesian found in the northern half of Bandoeng after noon today would be shot.

NATIONWIDE STRIKE AUTHORIZED BY VOTE OF STEELWORKERS; NO IMMEDIATE ACTION INDICATED

PITTSBURG, Nov. 29.—(AP)—With nearly complete returns from the steel workers strike ballot showing a heavy majority in favor of a walkout, the CIO-United Steel Workers today issued a call for its wage policy committee to meet here December 10 to consider the action of its members.

The union is demanding a $2 a day increase in wages.

Unofficial returns to the National Labor Relations Board from hundreds of polling places in 27 states showed a nearly 5-to-1 vote favoring a strike The vote this afternoon stood:

Officials of the CIO-United Steel workers held in their hands today authority to call a nationwide strike to enforce their demand for a $2 a day pay raise.

The power was given by members of their union who voted in a National Labor Relations Board election yesterday, favoring a strike nearly 5 to 1.

Unofficial, incomplete returns to the NLRB from hundreds of polling places in 27 states showed the workers voting 342,125 for, only 70,639 against a strike.

There was no indication a strike would be called immediately or even in the near future.

Worker were cautioned against any premature work stoppage and were informed the authority for a strike rests with the national wage policy committee and the executive board.

The election was the greatest NLRB vote ever undertaken in the United States ,involving 766 plants and some 650,000 workmen.

First Hundred Days Of Reconversion Success - - Truman

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—President Truman said today that the administration has not been asleep on the job of reconversion progress.

In his statement, the President said that unemployment is far less than had been expected; that the job of reconverting war plants "is virtually, completed;" and that time lost through work stoppages since August is only "0.76 of one per cent of the total working time available."

While the President in his statement spoke cheerfully of what has been accomplished, he declared that "inflationary pressures are still great, and danger signals point to a further building up through winter and spring are the rise of real estate, wholesale and raw materials prices."

Acknowledging "an upsurge of strikes since VJ-Day," Mr. Truman attributed this in part to the fact that all parties "held their grievances in check during the war and observed the no-strike pledge."

CRISIS IN RURAL ELECTRIFICATION IS FORECAST BY ELLIS

MANAGER NATIONAL RURAL COOP SAYS UTILITIES FIGHT IS ON

AUSTIN, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Warning of a "crisis in rural electrification," Clyde T. Ellis, executive manager for the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association, has called upon all local Co-Ops to join with national for a "united front."

"We are fighting for our very existence against the private utilities," Ellis told representatives from Texas, New Mexico and Arizona here yesterday for the annual convention of the 10th region, NRECA.

He said "this is the first time the power companies have come out in the open in an organized campaign against proposed REA legislation, and their lobby at this very minute is before congress with $1,000,000 ready to defeat the Poage bill or hamstring it with restrictive amendments."

Delegates joined with the Texas Power Reserve Electric Cooperative which met prior to the regional conference, in petitioning members of congress from the 10th regon to back HR 1742 by Rep. W. R. Poage (D-Texas) and refuse to accept any restrictive amendments to it.

Provides for Loans.

This bill provides $550,000,000 for the Rural Electrification Administration with which to make loans over a three-year expansion program.

Unless it is passed, said Ellis, 21 states, including Texas and New Mexico will be out of funds by Jan. 1 with no hope of any new allocations until July.

Ellis said the private utilities in addition "to trying to ruin the Foage bill with an amendment which will prevent REA from making loans for the construction of generating plants or transmission lines," are urging congress to prevent Co-Ops from using dams for both flood control and

Committee Faces Drive To Revive Navigation Flood Appropriations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—The House appropriations committee braced for a stand today against a drive to add another $124,475,000 to a deficiency supply bill.

Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) pleaded against adding to increase which already have bosted by $182,820.000 the total funds provided in the measure. It started through the House Tuesday with an overall total of $1,131,852,312.

Cannon told newsmen he saw little chance of stopping an amendment slated for consideration today which would add $124,475,000 for navigation and flood control projects turned down by the committee.

The districts of several hundred members are affected by one or more of the projects, he remarked.

Two committee-opposed amendments went into the bill yesterday. One added $24,500.000 for temporary housing for homeless veterans and their families. The other tacked on $158,320,000 for new hospitals and living quarters for the veterans administration.

SECRETARY OF LABOR TOOK PERSONAL HAND IN BIG GM STRIKE

GOVERNMENT CONCILIATOR HOPES GET PARTIES TO STRIKE TOGETHER

DETROIT, Nov 29—(AP)—C. E. Wilson, president of General Motors, said today the corporation has offered to meet with federal conciliators to discuss the strike of CIO United Automobile workers which has made 225,000 G. M. employes idle.

DETROIT, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Secretary of Labor Schwellenback took a personal hand today in the nine-day-old General Motors strike which has idled 225,000 workers and stalled production in more than 70 plants.

Schwellenbach, who conferred with President Truman late last week on the GM strike, sat in on a four-hour meeting with officials of the CIO United Automobile workers at Washington yesterday.

The conference was called by Chief Federal Conciliator Edgar L. Warren, who announced later he and Schwellenbach would ask GM President C. E. Wilson to resume negotiations promptly with the striking union. There was no advance hint as to what Wilson's reply would be.

Warern told reporters he was "hopeful" of getting the two parties together again and of finding a common ground for discussion of the union's 30 per cent wage increase demand.

UAW-CIO President R. J. Thomas and Vice President Walter P. Reuther said they were ready to meet with the GM management "any time, any place." Reuther added that GM would "have to be convinced" of the necessity of a meeting.

Decines Invitation

The Labor Department said Wilson had declined three separate invitations to the capital for talks with the conciliation service simiuar to those yesterday with the union.

The company also reiterated its refusal to consider its profits and prices a property subject for collective bargaining.

The Ford Motor Co., also facing the 30 per cent demand, meanwhile pressed its counter-demand for "company security" with a definite proposal.

Would Penalize Strikers

In its next contract with the UAW-CIO it sugegsted a provision entitling the company to deduct from union dues collected under the check-off system $5 for each day or fraction thereof any union member is idle in an unauthorized work stoppage.

A Ford spokesman said the union "can control its membership in the matter of unauthorized stoppages, slowdowns and controlled production, but has failed in this responsibility during the life of the present contract."

Terming the proposal "unrealistic," Richard T. Leonard, UAW-CIO Ford director, said it would

Gen. Eisenhower Says French Are Hampering Control

FRANKFURT, Germany, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Gen Eisenhower in a report released here today, criticised the French government for hampering the allied control council and urged early establishment of central German administrative machinery.

Summarizing the situation in Germany in October, before he left to become chief of staff of the U. S. army, Eisenhower cited the "potential dangers of unrest and disease this winter."

He declared, however, there was "no immediate emergency in the American and British zones as long as current rations can be maintained."

MARSHALL PREPARES FOR CHINA TRIP; PROBE PLANNED

CLOSED DOOR SESSION TO HEAR HURLEY AND SECRETARY OF STATE

By FRANCIS J. KELLY.

FASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Armed with broad powers, Gen. George C. Marshall sped preparations today for a quick flight to China as his predecessor's explosive resignation headed for an airing on Capitol Hill.

Chairman Connally (D-Texas) of the senate foreign relations committee told reporters he plans to call both Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley and Secretary of State James F. Byrnes before a closed door session, perhaps Monday.

The purpose, Connally said, will be an informal discussion of Hurley's contention that he had been crossed up as ambassador to China by subordinates both in the state department and at Chungking.

Connaliy stressed, however, that he has no intention of ordering any such full-dress hearing as Senator Wherry (R-Neb) demanded in a bitter senate speech late yesterday. This would have covered just about everything connected with the state department, the Atlantic Charter and the Potsdam Big Three agreement.

Departure Today Possible.

It appeared, meanwhile, that Marshall might get off for Chungking some time today.

The former army chief of staff has the absolute backing of Mr. Truman, and observers agree that anyone who fails to do what Marshall seriously wants done might very well find himself packing his bags for home.

Wherry demanded:

"How are we going to insure security to the other 70 nations of the earth which are now tossing on the flood tides of chaos unless we act to retain control of our own government and our own policies before it is too late?"

Then he introduced his resolution for an all-out investigation of the state department's policies, operations, administration and personnel.

Complaint Vague, General

Connally, asking "What is his complaint?" said Hurley's charges appeared vague and general, "and that is not enough."

"I'd like to have General Hurley come up here and look us in the eye and tell us what some of these terrible things are," he said.

Asserting that this is no time for political expediency or partisan politics, the Texan added.

"God knows there is enough trouble in the world. We have got to be united and act as Americans, not as Republicans or as Democrats."

Senator Bridges (R-NH), a foreign relations committee member, objected to Connally's manner in answering the Republican demand for an investigation.

"Pat Hurley may be right or he

Chief Nutt Is Doubling As Tax Collector

City Tax Assessor and Collector Kate Dunn is receiving the payment of 1945 taxes by devious routes.

One small sum came from a 75-year-old negro man addressed to "Mr. Brust Nut, Ther Cheft Policman." Bruce Nutt, chief of police, handed the letter and a $5 check to Miss Dunn.

In the letter, the old man revealed that the Lord had enabled him to pay his taxes for another year. "I hope I will never haft to stop no more until I get it all paid," he wrote. "This time I hope ter hear from you. Tell all you think I arter kno."

The old negro man sends his taxes to Chief Nutt each year. He probably figures it's a good idea to stand well with the main arm of the law.

MACKENZIE PREDICTS COMING YEAR TO DETERMINE TREND FOR PEACE OR ATOMIC HARA-KIRI

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP World Traveler.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—This column ventured the prediction weeks ago that the coming year would largely determine whether we are to have real peace or whether mankind is to commit atomic hara-kiri.

The signs have seemed to me to indicate that in this general period (for I'm not trying to pin the thing down to an exact length of time) we shall encounter the paramount international problem upon which peace hinges.

Now the corollary to this is that the quicker the new United Nations peace organization gets into action to help settle the difficulties, the better will be our chances of avoiding further conflict. With that thought in mind I've been making inquiries in circles of the preparatory commission which is getting things set for the meeting of the security organization assembly, and have found ready agreement with this thesis.

It is good to be able to report that there is a sense of urgency to get the organization going. Present plans anticipate the meeting of the general assembly the first week in Janfiary.

Then the world's major problems, both political and economic, can come before the United Nations. Indeed, I heard it suggested yesterday that there might be an international trade conference by June.

One of the earliest questions to be dealt with by the assembly will be the control of atomic energy—a subject which is causing international heart-burnings that are smoldering but none the less dangerous. However, there is a wide range of problems which can come before the assembly.

We may see the United Nations

JAPAN BELIEVED AVOIDING WAR UNTIL ATTACK, INVESTIGATORS LEARN; MARSHALL TO TESTIFY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Congressional investigators learned today that army intelligence officers predicted two days before the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor that Japan's leaders wanted "to avoid a general war in the Pacific."

This estimate of Japan's intentions was included in military documents given to the senate-house group investigating the Pearl Harbor disaster Dec. 7, 1941. These records also showed, among other things:

1—Army intelligence officers thought 10 days before the attack that Japan's next military move would be an invasion of Thailand. Maj. Gen. Sherman Mailes, then acting chief of intelligence, made this prediction in a memorandum to Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff.

2—Gen. Marshall sent a last-minute alert to Lt. Gen. Walter C. Short, army commander in Hawaii, which was received there about an hour before the Japanese struck. This message, sent by commercial cable because army radio facilities were not working properly, was not delivered to Short until three hours later.

Military Phases to Be Discussed.

The committee will get a chance to question Gen. Marshall about these and other matters soon. Chairman Barkley announced Marshall will be called as a witness before he leaves for China as President Truman's special envoy within two or three days.

As the committeemen turned to military phases of the investigation, after hearing diplomatic angles discussed for several days, they learned that American naval attaches in Japan and some areas of China were notified three days before the Pearl Harbor attack to destroy their codes.

Gerhard Gesell, committee counsel, presented a dispatch sent to the attaches Dec. 4 by Admiral Harold R. Stark, then chief of naval operations. This instructed them to "destroy this system" at their discretion and to report their actions by replying with words "Jaberwock" and "Boomerang." Admiral Husband E. Kimmel, then commander of the Pacific fleet, was marked in for a copy.

In announcing Gen. Marshall's forthcoming appearance before the committee, Barkley said in a statement:

Barkley said in a statement:

General Anxious to Testify.

"The committee has been officially advised that General Marshall will be able to testify before the committee prior to his departure for China. As soon as his schedule in this respect is definite, he will advise the committee in ample time to arrange for his testimony before he leaves the country."

Barkley added the comment that Marshall, wartime chief of staff for the army, "is just as anxious to

Russia Refuses Permit Iran To Reinforce Troops

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Hussein Ala, the Iranian ambassador, informed President Truman today his government had received a note from Russia formally refusing permission for Iran to reinforce its garrisons in the nothern part of the country.

The area has been the scene of civil disorders.

The ambassador said after a call at the White House that Russia's note was delivered to the Iranian embassy in Teheran. He quoted the Soviet govrenment as saying that further northward movement of Iranian troops would produce bloodshed and necessitate the movement of further Russian troops into Iran.

Ala told newsmen there was "no justification for troops of other nations in Iran" and that he had been hopeful that the American note of Nov. 24, suggesting the withdrawal of all outside forces would have produced different results.

UNITED NATIONS TO SOLVE PROBLEMS PRESIDENT BELIEVES

ALLIED RULE GERMANY DUE FOR MANY CHANGES AFTER PRICE REPORT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—President Truman said today he saw no need for any more Big Three conferences if the United Nations organization works as it should.

Asked at a news conference whether revisions in Allied control policy and machinery for Germany require a meeting of himself, Generalissimo Stalin and Prime Minister Attlee, Mr. Truman said he was not in favor of special conferences.

He wants the United Nations to do its job, he added, asserting he remembers that the League of Nations was ruined by special conferences.

The President stated he hoped the United Nations would take over within the next 90 days all the problems previously worked out by Big Three meetings.

Six Beliefs Stated

In his discussion of foreign policy Mr. Truman also developed these points:

1. He does not share the fear which a questioning reporter said some persons in the country hold that Russia will not cooperate toward world peace or that Russia's policies will lead to war.

2. At a later date, the President will dsicuss fully the international situation, particularly as it involves efforts of the nations to cooperate for peace.

3. Negotiations are now under way among the Allies ruling Germany for a revision of the Potsdam declaration on Germany in some respects. Chiefly the United States is seeking a modification of the arrangement which requires unanimous agreement among this government, Russia, France and Britain before any decisions can be made by the Allied control council in Berlin.

4. Gen. George C. Marshall, the President's special envoy to China probably will leave for Chungking in three or four days and the instructions which he is finally given may be published.

Hurley Officially Resigns

5. The resignation of Ambassador Patrick J. Hurley from the China post reached his desk formally only this morning, the President said. Hurley announced it two days ago with a blast at American 'career diplomats." Mr. Truman declined to comment on the Hurley criticisms.

6. The President said he no longer supported—as he did while Vice President— a Senate resolution favoring establishment of a Palestine Jewish commonwealth

BUILDING BOOM IN TEXAS INDICATED BY PERMIT HIKE

AUSTIN, Nov. 29—(AP)—A spurt in building permits in Texas during October is reflected in a report from the Bureau of Business Research.

New business institutions given charters during October were more than double the total for the same month of 1944, the Bureau reported.

Building permits for the month totaled $9.949,759 as compared with $3.781,917 for the same month in 1944.

Other figures given in the report include:

September cement production, 685,000 barrels as compared with 597,000 for September, 1944.

October petroleum production 1,482,350 barrels compared to 2,133,350 the same month a year ago, reflecting an easing of war demands for oil.

Lumber production and shipments were down. Average weekly production per unit of Southern pine mills was 178,432 board feet in October compared with 194,565 a year ago.

Fifteen cars of turkeys were shipped in October. The total for the same month a year ago was 11 cars. Chicken shipments dropped from 25 cars a year ago to 12 this October.

Egg shipments were 182 carloads this October compared to 756 a year ago.

NEITHER ROBBERS NOR CUSTOMERS KNEW BANK BEING ROBBED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 29.—(AP)—A lobby full of customers didn't know a robbery was being committed at the Fidelity National Bank yesterday—and the two bandits claim they didn't know they were holding up the teller for $13,505.

The robbery was executed by two negroes armed only with a pasteboard box containing a note instructing the cashier, Mrs. Betty Jean Phillips, to fill the box with big bills under threat of death to herself and others in the bank. The note was ostensibly signed by the escaped convict, Matt Kimes. Audaciously, it ordered the teller to give the negroes $5 for carrying out the holdup.

The note stated that "this messenger" was a representative of the Kimes gang and that he and three members of the gang were in the bank ready to shoot if instructions were not carried out.

The two boys, captured three hours after the holdup, told police they thought they were merely carrying out an errand and one, Welch Long, led officers to the hotel where he had hidden the money.

Deputy Sheriff Dan Kean said when he picked up Long, acting on a tip, the boy said "You know, for once in my life I sure am glad to see the law."

Long said he had given the other boy, Bill Hook, 17, $1 for accompanying him on the errand, to which he was summoned by a "Captain A. Jackson," by phone. He said Jackson had instructed him to deliver the money to a cafe but he was unable to find the location.

Marshall May Evaluate Situation.

CHUNGKING, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, U. S. commander in China, told newsmen today that he thought General Marshall was being sent to China "to make a survey of the situation and make appropriate recommendations to the President concerning future U. S. assistance—or military aid—to China."

Few men in the United States either military or civilian, are better equipped to evaluate a situation than General Marshall. He has a fund of experience in international affairs, and enjoys the respect of the President, Congress and the people of the United States," Wedemeyer added.

Chinese press dispatches meanwhile reported Nationalists have halted their fighting advance toward Mukden, Manchuria, because Russians allegedly agreed to their peaceful entry later into that historic, industrially-rich city.

The dispatches said that Nationalists now are mopping up Chinese Communist resistance in the area between Shanhiakwan, Great-Wall gateway to Manchuria, and Kowpangtze, a rail junction 90 miles below Mukden.

organization dealing with some issues which heretofore would have been regarded as not international in character but as purely the business of the nation immediately concerned. Thus a civil war such as now exists in China might become the concern of the world at large since it certainly threatens the peace of more than China.

This doesn't mean that national sovereignty isn't to be respected. On the contrary there seems to be a very positive determination not to intrude in the purely domestic matters of any country. It will be passing strange, however, if the security organization doesn't take a hand in cases where civil strife threatens international peace.

There also are likely to be cases where individual countries will turn local problems over to the United Nations.

HOWARD GOSS WAS ROTARY SPEAKER WEDNESDAY NOON

FARMERS FROM ALL SECTIONS COUNTY WERE GUESTS OF HONOR

The Rotary Club tipped its hat to the plain dirt farmers of Navarro county at a regular weekly luncheon meeting Wednesday at noon in the Navarro Hotel.

Farmers from all sections of the county were guests of honor at the luncheon and heard an address by Howard Goss of Temple, field representative of the state soil conservation board.

Mayor John C. Calhoun welcomed the group, saying "We have invited you here not for propaganda reasons but to promote fellowship, friendship and brotherly love."

Must Conserve Soil.

Predicting that the time of private land ownership will pass unless soil conservation is practiced successfully, Goss said that big finance, which formerly scorned the program, is now pouring money into the movement. "They have decided their financial structure rests on the preservation of the productive capacity of the soil," he declared. "And so it behooves us to see that this democratic procedure works. If it doesn't, they'll see that it works some other way."

"A soil conservation district is democracy in the raw," Goss continued. "It is legal and self-operating, like a city, a county, or an independent school district." There are 114 districts in Texas at present, organized under a state soil conservation law passed in 1939. The institution is 10(per cent in the hands of land owners, who administer the law.

SPECIAL AWARD IS ANNOUNCED FOR BOYS IN NAVARRO COUNTY

ROY HARRISON AND SON TO GIVE CONTEST WINNER REGISTERED HEREFORD

Navarro county 4-H Club boys and Future Farmers of America members have a new incentive to work hard at the business of raising beef animals.

A special award of a registered Hereford heifer to the winner of a contest conducted for 4-H and F.F.A. boys who feed anad exhibit one or more beef animals at the Corsicana Agricultural and Livestock Show in 1946 will be made by Roy Harrison, of Corsicana, and hos son Pvt. Charles H. Harrison, U. S. Army Air Corps. Frank M. Gracey, assistant county agent, revealed Wednesday.

Open To Aall

The contest is open to any member of the two organizations who feeds his animal and exhibits at next year's show. Winner of the contest will be determined by a committee of three, including the county agent, one vocational agricultural teacher, and a Navarro county Hereford breeder.

The committee shall make the award on the following basis using the following scoring standards:

1. 1946 record in calf breeding—50 points.
2. Essay on "What I Plan to Do with My Hereford Heifer"—20 points.
3. Facilities available for caring for the heifer—30 points.

The winner will be announced at the Fair and the award presented with appropriate ceremonies, Gracey said.

Policy of Committee

It is to be the policy of the committee judging to place the heifer with the contestant who qualifies highest under the score card, and to select a winner who plans to keep and develop the heifer as a possible foundation for a future herd of registered Hereford cattle.

Harrison, a resident of Corsicana for many years and co-owner with his son of a herd of registered Herefords raised on their farm near Powell ,said Wednesday his purpose in arranging the award was to stimulate interest among Navarro county's younger farmers in the raising of beef cattle. His son Charles, he said ,who is now stationed at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, "got his start" in 4-H Club work and is now owner of a valuable herd. He stated that he was a firm believer in the 4-H and F.F.A. programs and considered them to be of great value to the youth of the county. Harrison has long been interested in farm boys' club work and "just wanted to do a little something to encourage them," he said.

Highest Rank In Scouting Awarded To Joe M'Adams

Joe McAdams received the Eagle Scout award as the feature event of the Navarro district Court of Honor held Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the Third Avenue Presbyterian Church.

The Eagle award, highest rank in scouting, was presented to McAdams by Dr. Matthew H. Arnold, who congratulated the scout and his parents and gave Mrs. McAdams the honor of pinning the Eagle badge on her son.

The court was called to order by Guy Henry, Advancement chairman, and invocation was given by the Rev. Erwin F. Bohmfalk, following which the scouts of the host troop under the leadership of Andrew McColpin led the assembly in the Scout Oath, the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the singing of the first verse of "America."

Henry welcomed Tom D. Bailey back to local scouting circles after recent service with the navy and placed the meeting under his direction. Bailey is the chairman of the Court of Honor committee.

Bailey introduced the present field executive, Don Winslow and his family. Winslow spoke briefly on "What Is a Scout?"

BRITISH SOCIALISM

Socialism is to most Americans a fearsome and fascinating thing. That is, fascinating in somewhat the same sense that a lion or a serpent may fascinate his victim before devouring it. With England, historically the mother country of most of us, now definitely accepting Socialist rule, we find ourselves hesitating and squirming around a bit to get our bearings.

The Century Dictionary Defines this form of government as "a theory or system of social organization which aims at securing better distribution and more effective production of wealth by the vesting of ownership and control of the means of production, capital, land, etc., in the community as a whole."

The new British Socialism may be little more than an entering wedge. The main question is how far the people will go. With Britain and America so closely associated as we are now, whatever occurs there in the way of governmental changes is naturally of keen interest to our own country.

STALIN'S HEALTH

The tales of Stalin's serious illness should be taken with many grains of salt. True, the ruler of a large state may easily get sick and, under a consorship as severe as Russia's, keep the fact a secret. On the other hand allowance must be made for human readiness to believe that something startling is going on behind the scenes. There has also been a special tendency to believe strange things about Russia. Lenin was reported dead many years before the fact. Often, to make it more interesting, he was said to be insane. Americans, too, may recall sensational yarns told about various presidents, most of which proved entirely untrue.

SAVIOR OF SCENERY

Few people have heard of the late Philip W. Ayres, but New Hampshire dwellers and all lovers of scenery should be grateful to him. As an officer of the Society for the protection of New Hampshire Forests, he saved the White Mountains from being stripped of timber, as well as from the damage caused by succeeding fires. He got the state to establish a forestry department, established the White Mountain National Forest covering 1,000 square miles, and saved such beauty spots as Crawford Notch and Franconia, including those picturesque formations, the Old Man of the Mounains and the Flume.

For generations to come tourists will have cause to thank Philip W. Ayres.

NAZI NERVE

Almost anything can be believed of the Nazis, but the records just recovered from the once dreaded people's court in Berlin approach the bounds of incredibility. Not only did the Nazis try to execute their victims, but they even sent the victim's families bills for their "services."

The charge for jailing, trying and beheading the average German charged with treason was $1,601.12. This included a charge for every day that the victim was kept in prison, and $94.40 for the funeral, though this involved nothing but tossing the deceased into a grave.

Thus to their other crimes the Nazis added meanness.

KEEP-A-GOING!

Very rough and steep the way?
Keep-a-going!
Gain a step or two each day!
Keep-a-going!
If a worth while fight you're in,
Grit your teeth and set your chin!
While you've still a chance to win
Keep-a-going!

Is your path with briars beset?
Keep-a-going!
Do your burdens heavier get?
Keep-a-going!
If you think that fall you may,
Where you stop you'll surely stay,
This is much the better way:
Keep-a-going!

While you've strength to move along
Keep-a-going!
If the odds seem much too strong
Keep-a-going!
Unto failure don't submit;
Till you're beaten don't you quit;
While you've still the power to hit
Keep-a-going!

RUSSIA'S WATERWAYS

The canal connecting the Arctic Ocean with the Baltic has been repaired, the Russians announce. Bombed early in the war, this canal would have permitted boats plying between Leningrad and Archangel to travel only 140 miles. Its destruction required them to go all the way around Scandinavia, with consequent liability to attack.

Canals are far more important in Russian life than here. Russia is blessed with many large rivers, so construction of a few short canals makes it possible to sail from the Baltic to the Caspian and from the Arctic to the Black Sea, besides making innumerable other combinations. Also planned is a waterway joining the Caspian and Black Seas. This, it is estimated, would require 10 times the explosives and effort needed to dig the Panama Canal. Yet is does not deter the Russians from contemplating the project, and in time it will probably be undertaken.

American canals had their heyday before the railroads got really going. Many have been abandoned, but those that remain carry far less than their capacity. Yet there is much bulky freight in no need of quick delivery which might profitably go by water.

LIGHTER PIANOS

Soon anybody can move a piano. An aluminum alloy plate has been developed, weighing only 45 pounds as against the 125-pound cast iron plate which has been used for nearly 100 years. Of course there is still the weight of the case and as a grand piano weighs about 800 pounds, an 80-pound saving is only a first step. Others perhaps will follow.

Anyone wanting to help in the piano moving without having to do too much work, had still better offer to move the stool.

YOUNG AMERICA

An interesting sidelight on the housing situation comes from a study of the age of existing residences in 200 American cites. The analysis shows that about 25 per cent are more than 50 years old; 29 per cent have stood from 30 to 50 years; about 23 per cent were built 20 to 30 years ago; and about 23 per cent classified as "modern," are less than 20 years old. Looked at sectionally the report disclosed that the California - southwest area has less than 10 per cent of its houses older than 50 years.

Europeans with their stone cottages that have housed generations will view these figures with wonderment. Indeed these findings are testimony to the really tender age of the United States.

DISTRICT, COUNTY ATTORNEYS OF TEXAS CALL FOR REVISION

By MARY L. KENNEDY

AUSTIN, Nov. 29—(AP)—District and county attorneys of Texas have joined with police and sheriffs in calling for revision of the laws under which prisoners are pardoned from the penitentiary system.

E. A. Gormely of Dallas, president of the Police Chiefs Association, appointed a committee to study 'the effects of pardons and paroles on the apparent increase on crime being experienced in Texas."

The District and County Attorneys, noting that "it has never been hard to get signatures to a petition for a pordon," released a committee report suggesting the law be made more stringent. This was sent to the Governor and members of the legislature.

One recommendation was that a prisoner be required to notify prosecuting witnesses or injured parties of his intention to obtain a pardon, so they could have an opportunity to present their views.

Welcomes Investigation

Chairman Elster Haile of the Board of Pardons and Paroles says he welcomes any investigation of the system and believes "co-operation of all branches of law enforcement is needed to strengthen the parole system."

He disagrees with the police association criticism that both paroles and convictions are increasing. He cites these figures: Convictions dropped from 2,663 in 1940 to 1,611 in 1944; paroles dropped from 1,912 in 1940 to 1,680 last year, and both these factors served to lower the entire prison population. The rise in parole violations from six per cent five years ago to 10 per cent last year, he attributed to the unsettled condition brought on by the war.

Homer Garrison, direcor of the Department of Public Safety, believes some of the trouble lies in the provision of law under which a prisoner comes up for parole automatically with "good time" subtracted from the minimum end of his sentence.

Often Play Good

"A 'wise convict' often plays good," says Garrison, "because he knows it will get him out of the pen in a hurry.

"Therefore, before a man can be safely recommended for parole, we need a thorough study of his past social history and present disposition to crime as analyzed by a ed psychiarist."

Garrison also noted that "every law passed during the past few years has made it harder to convict a man, but easier to get him out of the pen."

It is becoming evident that the next legislature will face a strong demand for revision of the pardon and parole laws. Gov. Coke Stevenson says he has the situation under constant study, and may make some recommendations himself.

(Tomorrow: What those who name members of the parole board think should be done).

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Keathley and son, Robert have returned from Houston where they spent the Thanksgiving week end with Messrs. Hampton and M. S. Keathley and families. While in Houston, they attended a radio broadcast by the Houston Symphony Orchestra for which Hampton Keathley is the announcer.

Game Commission, University Can't Share Laboratory

AUSTIN, Nov. 29.—(AP)—"No matter how desirable it might be for the University of Texas to share in a marine laboratory on the Gulf Coast with the game, fish and oyster commission," there is no statute authorizing such a procedure, according to the attorney general's department.

This opinion by Assistant Attorney General William J. Fanning was in answer to a question by Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the commission.

Dodgen also asked whether the game commission could use money from the fish and oyster fund for contruction of a marine laboratory building. The answer to this was yes.

THE NATION TODAY
By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—Rain dripped all day from the low skies over the Capital. It was a grey day, yesterday was, the 105th day since Japan quit and the world suddenly went back to peace.

Yesterday this was some of the news at home and abroad.

Abroad—

In China—Nationalist troops fought the communists. (In the U. S. House and Senate cries went up for investigation of our policy in China.)

In Iran: Government forces confronted insurgents. America, Britain and Russia, who used this ancient country as a wartime highway, watched carefully.

In Java: Indonesians fought the British.

At home—

Senator Johnson (D-Colo.) told the Senate "we are drifting toward war with Russia with certainty and speed."

He said he'd like to see the U. S. stand up to Russia and say.

"Brother, you haven't a thing on earth that we covet other than your cooperation, friendship and good will. But don't make the fatal mistake of pushing us around—we won't take it."

Byron Price, sent by President Truman to investigate conditions in Germany, said in his report we face failure in running that country unless we do better.

And before the Senate atomic energy committee went the man who headed the atomic project, Maj. Gen. L. R. Groves, to say:

We should keep on making the bombs until we have a "sufficient supply.

When the Japanese surrender came it was hoped that by this time of 1945 production would be rolling in this country—but 500,000 men are idle because of labor disputes.

And 700,000 steel workers are voting on whether they want to strike for higher pay.

No one now is counting on a specific solution for all this from the labor-management conference which President Truman called four weeks ago.

CIO-PAC To Enter Four Texas Races

DALLAS, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Four Texas congressional district races will be entered by the Political Action Committee of the CIO, C. A. McPeak, regional CIO PAC director, told the Dallas News.

The districts are 5, 9, 12 and 13, represented respectively by Hatton W. Sumners, Dallas; J. J. Mansfield, Columbus; Fritz Lanham, Fort Worth, and Ed Gossett, Wichita Falls.

ARMY INTELLIGENCE GUESSED THAILAND BE INVASION POINT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Army intelligence officers guessed on Nov. 27, 1941—ten days before the Pearl Harbor attack—that Japan's next military move would be an invasion of Thailand.

This estimate was disclosed in a memorandum by Brig. Gen. Sherman Miles, then acting assistant chief of intelligence which was filed today with the senate-house committee investigating the Pearl Harbor disaster.

Miles told Gen. George C. Marshall, former army chief of staff, that it then appeared evident Japan had "completed plans for further aggressive moves in Southeastern Asia."

A Dec. 5 estimate for Marshall on the forthcoming military developments in December, January, February and March carried the statement that Japanese leaders "aware of the peril of further military adventures" wanted "to avoid a general war in the Pacific."

A few Texas cities are preparing for special events to help put Texas into the win column in the Victory Loan.

In an effort to boost lagging Texas E-bond sales, Gov. Coke R. Stevenson has proclaimed Dec. 2-8 as "Victory Loan E Bond Week."

Nathan Adams, state chairman of the campaign said that only 35 per cent or $31,495,182.50 of the 90 million dollar E bond quota has been met in Texas. He said Texas trails the nation in E bond sales.

Rites Wednesday For Father And Three Children

Funeral services for Robert Pierce, 40, and his three children, found shot to death Monday near Ada, Oklahoma, were held from the McCammon Funeral Chapel Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The rites were conducted by Dr. Matthew Arnold, pastor of the Third Avenue Presbyterian church, and Rev. C. W. Brogan, Cumberland Presbyterian minister. Mrs. Pierce is the former Miss Clara Buck of Corsicana, daughter of the late Mrs. Florence Buck of Corsicana.

Press reports from Ada, Oklahoma, revealed that the three children, Emily, aged nine years; Janet, aged seven years, and Joe, aged four months, had been taken for a ride by the father Sunday afternoon. The bodies of the four were found about five miles south of Ada Monday afternoon after a 24-hour search.

All had been shot with a pistol, it was stated, with the children lying in a row on a quilt with Pierce's body lying over the bodies of the older children and with a small calibre-pistol nearby, according to statements attributed to officers.

Relatives stated that despondency caused by ill health and inability to secure a house for his family where he was employed at Tulsa and later at Fort Worth as a railroad dispatcher was believed to have caused the tragedy. He was said to have resigned his job with a railroad the day before the death of the quartet.

The family formerly resided in Dallas and Houston.

Pierce is survived by his wife, mother, Mrs. Mary Pierce, LaJunta, Colo., and other relatives.

The children are survived by their mother and several uncles, aunts and other relatives.

Former Corsicanan Takes Canal Trip On Carrier Wasp

Friends of Mrs. Merle W. Bergeson, former resident of this city, who is now residing at Fort Gulick, in the Canal Zone, where her husband is serving as chaplain with the U. S. Station Hospital, have received messages from her, telling of a recent trip through the Panama Canal on the famous airplane carrier "The Wasp," which was returning from the South Pacific and en route to Boston harbor. The carrier was of particular interest to the former Corsicanan because it was typical of the navy's air power that drove the Japanese back across the Pacific from their islands of conquest to final defeat on the homeland.

A Jap flag, painted on the sides of the carrier for every Jap craft downed, revealed that 114 ships had been sunk, 96 islands had been attacked and 230 aircraft had been shot down.

An excursion party of 400 army people were 12 hours en route from Cristobal to the Canal to view "The Wasp," and they were entertained with organ concerts and numerous forms of entertainment throughout the trip.

Mrs. Bergeson state that "The Wasp" was almost too large for the locks at Pedro Miguel at first, and she could readily see the need for larger locks. This was the first time that anyone had been allowed on the docks or on the ships since the war started, therefore there was an unusual interest and excitement about the whole trip, the former Corsicanan stated.

AAA ELECTION IS PLANNED BE HELD SATURDAY, DEC. 8

Preparations are being completed for the AAA Community Committee Election which will be held in 26 community centers in Navarro county on Saturday, December 8, with polls open from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., according to C. T. Young, Navarro county ACA Secretary.

For the first time the election of AAA committeemen will be by printed ballot, with two nominations for each office and blanks for write-ins if desired, Young said.

Offices to be filled include a delegate to the county convention at which time the county committeemen will be elected, two alternate delegate, a chairman of the community committee, a vice-chairman, a regular member of the community committee a first alternate community committeeman, and a second alternate. This calls for election of seven nominees in each community.

Any Navarro county farm producer, including landlord-tenants, tenants, share croppers, and land owners, are eligible to vote in the December 8 election, Young stated. He emphasized the importance of voting to select the officers, stating that responsible men must be selected to serve as community committeemen to assume duties involved in the proper distribution of funds allocated to the county to conduct the ACA program.

Community centers for which elections are scheduled include Frost, Emmett, Dawson, Eldorado, Blooming Grove, Dresden, Purdon, Hubbard, Rushing, Barry, Pickett, Emhouse, West Corsicana, Navarro, Streetman, Rice, East Corsicana, Eureka, Midway, Chatfield, Powell, Monlton, Basette, West Kerens, East Kerens, and Rural Shade.

The prize panel will handle violations of the price control program and supervise the activities of the informational group," Murchison said.

In addition to the price panel, the tire and food panels are continuing to operate the rationing of tires and sugar.

Mr. Love killed a deer on his hunt in the mountain areas of New Mexico.

Mrs. Claude Allen has returned from a Thanksgiving visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hurst, at Grapevine. Mr. Hurst has recently been discharged from the U. S. Navy.

Bobbie Corley Shot Bucks Past Weekend

Bobbie Corley, lineman of the Corsicana High school Tigers, bagged a couple of bucks in the Idalou-Blanco section during the week end. One was a small three-pointer but the other was a nine-point animal, the largest secured on that lease this year.

Bobbie now joins his dad, John R. Corley, and brother, David, in getting the limit this year. The others bagged their pairs the previous week-end.

Bobbie plays both guard and tackle with the Tigers.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for the sympathy and many deeds of kindness shown us during the recent illness and passing away of our beloved son.

MR. AND MRS. JOHNNIE COLSON, FAMILY AND RELATIVES.

PREVIOUS BIDS ON HANGAR REJECTED BY CITY COMMISSION

All bids previously received for the construction of a hangar at the proposed Corsicana airport were rejected as a special called meeting of the city commission Tuesday morning.

The commission, at the same time, voted to readvertise for bids and reserved the right to reject any or all of these and to be the judge of which is the best bid.

A slight change in specifications and requirements for the hangar were noted. It is to be 100 feet instead of the original 70x100 feet. This must be revised by the city secretary not later than 2 p. m. Tuesday, December 4, regular meeting date of the commission. The basic specifications and requirements will be on file in the office of City Engineer Fred Blumberg.

Mayor John C. Calhoun revealed that the representative of one of the companies expected to bid on the hangar was in the city Monday and indicated his company would offer a bid $5,000 cheaper than any previously received. This would be for an 80x100 foot building.

THE MONEY FACTOR IN LIFE IS PROBLEM FOR EVERYBODY*

"Economics" is Question of Making Both Ends Meet - - How It is Affected by Religion - - The Foolish Rich Man - - The Kingdom Conception of Life.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS

Grandmother used to call it, "making both ends meet"; now we have labelled it "economic relations" It is still the same problem, on whatever scale. Our Lesson broadens it into the wide question of a Christian's relation to money. The strikes that have seared North America bring home to everybody the issue. And we know that the world war had its roots in economic causes; and that the same forces menace the peace.

Last evening an Assyrian friend from Bagdad, who was spending the night with us, told of his own personal fortunes, before we entered upon the engrossing subject of policies in the Near East and Middle East. He has prospered in America, but he has kept Christian standards to the fore. With great earnestness he said, "The longer I live the more clearly I see that, as the Bible says, "The love of money is a root of all evil." Speaking of the lack of good taste on the part of many rich persons with whom he does business, he held his right hand at one level, and his left hand far below it (the oriental cannot talk without gestures), and he said Often the level of education and good taste is down here when the level of wealth is up here." One recalls Dean Swift's familiar and biting apothegm, "You may know what the Almighty thinks of money by the kind of people He gives it to."

The Life Worth Living

Somebody has said that a man's life consists of the things to which he is alive. If he is alive only to money, and dead to beauty and spiritually and literature and brotherhood, and all the other largesse with which God has dowered the days, he is of all men most miserable.

The poorest man I know is the richest person in his community.

Money is necessary, and the purchaser of many good things. But only if it is a servant, and not a master. We say of a man, "He has money," when what we really mean is that "money has him." Jesus was unsparing in His condemnation of the man that "layeth up treasures for himself, and is not rich toward God."

Life accepted as a stewardship takes the curse off money. He who lives to give—no matter in what amounts—becomes a sharer of a wealth of human fellowship. He links his personality with something bigger than himself.

The Kingdom Idea

This conception of possessions as a trust from God reaches out into the whole idea of the Kingdom of Heaven, which is greater than the Church. We all see that if we are to have a new order of world society and peace the money-lovers must be restrained. "Big business", when it is bad business, tries to lay a road-block across the path of altruistic patriotism. It puts profits above patriotism and above social welfare and justice. If a revival of real religion were to sweep the business world, and the labor world, there would soon be an end to industrial conflict.

A good definition of the Kingdom of Heaven in its comprehensiveness, was given in a recent issue of The Religious Digest, credited to Herbert Stead: "The Kingdom of God," he said, "is a fellowship of Christ-love which is to include every soul that is willing to enter it. A community which will embrace every other true community of men, which contains and controls the home, the state, the economic system, the fellowships of science, letters and arts. A holy society already in the midst of men, shedding its brightness over human life, yet shining more and more into the perfect day; a kingdom progresssively realized on earth, perfectly fulfilled in heaven. A girdle of love destined to clasp into unity the whole of mankind, whatever the race, the color, the culture, and bind all to the throne of our Father, God."

Who Are Successful?

I know a man, an all-round workman, lumberman and trapper, who can neither read nor write, but whose practical intelligence and faithfulness and integrity have made him a pillar in his community. I vote him a successful man, far worthy of that label than the neighborhood usurers who have accumulated money.

And I know many saints who, in poverty, have walked with their penniless Master in holiness and helpfulness and spiritual peace—men and women "rich toward God."

Our Lesson text ends with the familiar story of the man who had grown so rich that he contemplated bigger storehouses for his wealth, and a life of ease and pleasure. But God called him a fool; for that very night his soul would be required of him, and he had no wealth that would last. Christian economics—to stick to our Lesson title—has its best investments beyond the grave. He who live wholly for the Kingdom lives fully in two worlds.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion,* thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.

2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

FUNERAL SERVICES MRS. ALMA CAMPBELL HELD AT EMHOUSE

Funeral services for Mrs. Alma Edna Campbell, aged 31 years, fatally injured Monday night when the automobile in which she was riding turned over several times after leaving the pavement near the Corsicana Country Club, were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the First Baptist church in Emhouse. The rites were conducted by Rev. Dan Sharpley, pastor of the church. Burial was in Emmett cemetery.

Mrs. Campbell, accompanied by her four-year old daughter, Carolyn Ballew, by a former marriage, was reported en route home to Emhouse from Corsicana wher her car plunged over an embankment, went through a fence and telephone post, turned over and hurled her body some 35 feet from where the car came to a stop, according to statements by Richard Perkins, 416 South Thirteenth street, Corsicana, who, with Miss Margaret Petty of Corsicana, discovered the wrecked automobile, the lifeless body of the victim and the little child, unhurt and nestling in the arms of the mother. Perkins said the child was not excited or perturbed when he arrived. The body of Mrs. Campbell and the child were brought to the P. and S. Hospital. It was estimated that Mrs. Campbell was killed about 9 p. m. and the body was discovered at 10:45 p. m. Sheriff Cap Curington and State Highway Patrolman Byron Currin investigated the accident.

Fifteenth Auto Fatality.

Mrs. Campbell's death was the fifteenth auto fatality in Navarro county during 1945.

Officers and others investigating the circumstances surrounding the accident were at a loss to explain how the mother was hurled such a distance and that the child escaped injury, unless the woman had clutched her child at the time of the accident and almost miraculously broke the impact of the fall with her own body, saving the child.

Surviving are her husband, J. E. Campbell, U. S. Armed Forces, home on furlough; four children, James Ballew, Keith Ballew, Joy Ballew and Carolyn, all of Emhouse; father, T. M. Morgan, Emhouse; three brothers, Mark Morgan, Corbet; Mason Morgan, Corsicana, and Billy Morgan, U. S. Navy; three sisters, Mrs. Willard Wilne and Dorothy Morgan, both of Alma, and Helen Morgan, Corsicana, and other relatives.

AMERICAN THEATRE AT LOW EBB CLAIMS HOLLYWOOD CRITIC

By BOB THOMAS.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 29.—(AP)—The American theater is at a low ebb, says Dudley Nichols.

Traditionally, Hollywood has been the target of ridicule and criticism from stage people, notably George S. Kaufman. Now a Hollywoodian hits back.

Rudley Nichols, distinguished writer of "Stage Coach," "The Informer," "Long Voyage Home," "Air Force" and the current "Bells of St. Fary's," told me he believes playwrights are doing a poor job, compared to screen writers.

"Because of the limited audience, the stage is a medium of penetration," he said. "The movies, appealing to a mass group, can only touch the surface. Instead of dealing with the problems that it alone can handle, the stage is merely hitting the surface. And that is something the movies can do better."

Nichols said Hollywood is open to criticism, particularly for its timidity. "But the movies have done a remarkably good job within their limitations," he said. As for the stage:

"I think if Eugene O'Neill will release 'The Iceman Cometh,' everyone will realize how poor the American theater has been and the plays of the last two years will be swept away like chaff."

That homing pigeon Fred MacMurray returns to his old lot, Paramount, on a long-term contract after a year's labor at 20th-Fox. Tyrone Power expects to be separated from the Marines at San Diego around Dec. 10. Then he'll do "Razor's Edge"....Jackie Cooper is eligible for his navy release Dec. 15....Johnny Mercer off to New York to oversee "St. Louis Woman," for which he and Harold Arlen wrote the score.... Two of Russell's brothers are in the service, Clifton Russell, S-1c, NAS Supply Depot, Kodiak, Alaska and Pfc. Simpson Russell, who was awarded four battle stars for participation in action in the Marshalls, the Philippines, on Okinawa, and in Korea. Pfc. Russell is now in a hospital on Okinawa.

Two Texas Courts Ruled Differently

AUSTIN, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Two of Texas' intermediate civil appeals courts have ruled differently on what constitutes proper legal notice of will probate proceedings, and with title to considerable land at issue, the matter will probably have to be settled by the Supreme Court.

The Third Court of Civil Appeals yesterday ruled in a case from Bell county that the notice is given when the Sheriff nails the citation on the door of the courthouse. Another appeals court has ruled that the sheriff must ascertain that such notice has remained posted continuously for 10 days before making his return.

The Corsicana Day Nursery will meet in regular session on Thursday, December 6th, at 7:30 o'clock at Kinsloe House with Mrs. Murphy Williams, chairman of the board, in charge of the meeting.

WAITING FOR SHIPS THAT NEVER COME, IS PLIGHT OF SOLDIERS

Waiting for ships that "never come in" are more than 2,000 officers and enlisted men on Palawan in the Philippine Islands.

Cpl. John Gilliam of Corsicana is among this group. The son of Mrs. B. B. Gilliam, route 3, he has been in the service 25 months and overseas 18 months. This week Corporal Gilliam sent his mother a copy of the Sun Setter Daily News, published on Palawan, which eloquently describes the long hours of waiting for two ships that didn't arrive.

"On November 1 a rumor circulated that a ship would dock here on November 5 to take home all the men on the island in Class IV Units," the article reads. "Later in the day this report was confirmed. The watch began on November 4." But no ship arrived and morale became "very strikingly poor."

"A few nights later, the morale rose sharply again when it was announced that the U. S. S. General Langfitt would arrive on November 13. On November 12 a thousand men lined the beaches to watch for the ship. They were like men who had been shipwrecked and who were about to be rescued, and their vigil was as diligent as that of shipwrecked men waiting for the ship which will rescue them."

Again no ship arrived. The men on Palawan are no longer wondering "when they will get home" but "if they will get home," the article concludes.

St. Margaret's Branch, Woman's Auxiliary, St. John's Episcopal Church, will meet at the home of Mrs. Fred M. Allison on Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, according to announcement by officials of the organiaztion.

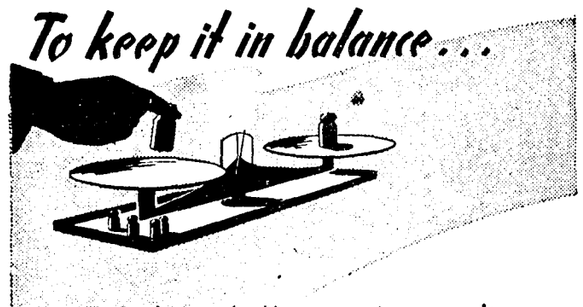

Recall of Officials Reported.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Recall petitions on City Commissioners B. G. Moffett and Neal Marriott, will probably be certified before the city council tomorrow, the Caller-Times said today.

Certification of petitions on Mayor Roy Self and Commissioners Nels Beck and Raymond Rambo, are pending, the newspaper announced.

Mayor Self and the four city commissioners were asked twice to resign by the "Better Government League," and both times refused. Some 4,000 names were signed to petitions demnading their resignations and a recall election.

To keep it in balance...

Think of your checking account as a scale. On one side is the service you receive: safety for your funds, convenience in paying bills, a complete record of money transactions, and cancelled checks that are valuable evidence of payments.

On the other side are the earnings our bank obtains by investing a part of the money you have on deposit. When this isn't enough to even up the scales, you pay a small amount to put them in balance. And that's the why and wherefore of service charges!

An army board which investigated the Pearl Harbor disaster noted that a Dec. 7, 1941, alert order which Marshall telephoned to Gen. MacArthur in the Philippines was sent by commercial facilities to army commanders in Hawaii. It was delivered three hours after the Japanese attacked.

Army Commander Warned.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall's last minute warning to the army commander in Hawaii to "be on the alert"—a message delivered at the attack on Pearl Harbor—was laid before congressional investigators today.

A previous investigation by an army inquiry board showed that while Marshall called Gen. Douglas MacArthur in the Philippines by telephone to warn him on December 7, 1941, he dispatched a message to Lt. Gen. Walter C. Short, in command at Honolulu.

This message, which went by commercial cable because the army's radio facilities were not working properly was:

The message showed it was dispatched from Washington at 12:18 p. m., Eastern Standard Time. Army investigators learned it was received in Hawaii about 45 minutes later, less than an hour before the attack began at 7:50 a. m., Hawaiian Time.

Because of the attack it was not delivered to Short until about three hours later.

The fortnight-old Pearl Harbor investigation swung toward the military side today despite Republican protests against dropping state department angles "without notice.

Senator Ferguson (R-Mich) told reporters he had been planning a line of questioning for Max Hamilton, chief of the State Department's Far Eastern division at the time of the Dec. 7, 1941 attack.

Yesterday, however, counsel for the senate-house committee announced that after brief testimony today by former Secretary of State Cordell Hull and a wind-up appearance of former Ambassador Joseph C. Grew the witnetsses would be Maj. Gen. Sherman Miles and Vice Adm. Theodore S. Wilkinson. They were chiefs of Army and Navy intelligence at the time of Pearl Harbor.

Asked what he planned to ask the military men, Ferguson—who has been the committee's most persistent questioner—replied:

"I don't know. I'm not ready. Counel didnt' inform us of the change. You reporters knew of it, but we didn't."

The Michigan senator agreed with other committee members, however, that Gen. George C. Marshall, wartime army chief of staff, ought to be heard before he leaves for his new post as special envoy to China.

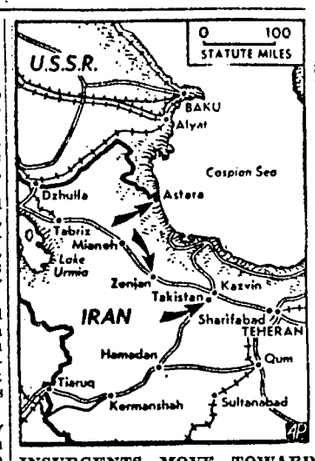

Chairman Barkley (D-Ky) said the committee is in touch with Marshall and told reporters "in case he's just on the verge of leaving, we could call him right away." An appearance today thus became possible.

Grew, who has appeared daily since Monday, came back to finish his tetimony, which dealt at length yesterday with his personal diary.

Some Republican members suggested that the dairy be opened for inspection—a proposal to which Grew objected.

because conditions have changed. A reporter had noted some Zionists have said the President gave advance support to the Taft-Wagner resolution in behalf of such a commonwealth.

A drastic revision of American policy on Germany is expected by diplomatic officials to result from Byron Price's report to President Truman on the potential failure of present German administration.

With his "Morgenthau plan"—a so-called hard-peace-plan—the former secretary of the treasury had great influence in the writing of the basic German policy directive. This is the directive under which the American military government in Germany functioned originally and from which it still draws considerable authority.

As part of his program for bringing orders into line with experience Price proposed that there should be some provision for slowing down the process of denazification where men of small position in industry are concerned.

Increased Production Needed

Mr. Truman's special emissary also laid emphasis on the need to increase German production to a point at which it would help to make Germany self-sustaining by providing exports to match needed imports.

Mr. Treman transmitted the report to the secretaries of state, war and navy yesterday with a recommendation that they give it careful consideration with a view to taking joint action.

Price in his 5,000-word report credited the military under Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower with having done an excellent job so far. But he said the time has come now when the initial military objectives of rendering Germany harmless have been achieved and decisions must be made on more basic, long-range goals.

In discussing the form of civilian government he aid should succeed the military in Germany no earlier than June 1, Price said:

'An' ideal choice would be an army officer of proven judgment and administrative ability xxx who would be willing to serve in a civilian capacity and administer according to civilian formulas."

Price did not mention any names, but his presentation of a pattern for the civilian administrator stirred speculanion over these men:

Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, just arrived in Germany as successor to Eisenhower in the military governor's post.

Lt. Gen. Lucian K. Truscott who commanded the 5th Army in Italy and then succeeded Gen. George Patton in command of the Third Army.

Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the deputy military governor in the American zone.

The story was the same in every state, an overwhelming majority for the strike authorization.

FORT WORTH, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Dr. Edwin A. Elliott, regional NLRB director, today announced that employes of the U. S. Of 117 eligible among Port Arthur employes, nine cast ballots, with seven in favor and two against. At the Beaumont plant, 69 out of 137 eligible voted, with 49 for and 20 against strike action.

Top Offensive Stars To Meet In Sugar Bowl

DALLAS, Nov. 28.—(AP)—The Sugar Bowl folks must have been reading the national college football statistics put out by Homer F. Cooke, Jr., director of the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

Anyway, they snared the one-two offensive punch when they got Oklahoma A. and M. and St. Mary's for their Jan. 1 classic. Because to date Bob Fenimore of the Aggies is leading the nation's college football in total offense with 1641 yards on 203 plays in eight games and German Wedemeyer, St. Mary's ace, is second with 1428 on 199 plays in a like number of contests.

Fenimore, also, is rushing leader, the blond all-America having rolled up 1048 yards on 142 carries. Pressing him, however, is Ohio State's Ollie Cline with 963 yards on 184 rushes in nine games.

In forward passing it's Allen Dekdebrun of Cornell, who has thrown 194 times and completed 90 for 1227 yards in nine games. Wedemeyer is second with 1040 yards on 59 connections in 103 attempts.

In pass receiving it's still Reid Moseley of Georgia, who has taken 28 throws for 670 yards in eight games.

Union Demonstration Protest Redeployment Delays Still On

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Harry Bridges, leader of the CIO International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union, has rejected the request of Rear Admiral Emory S. Land, War Shipping Administrator, that the ILWU cancel its scheduled protest demonstration against delays in the redeployment program.

Land made his plea to Bridges Nov. 2 contending that the union was acting on "erroneous information concerning troop transportation."

Bridges telegraphed Land yesterday that the 24-hour demonstration will start at 8 a. m. Dec 3. Four other unions have announced they intend to participate in the work stoppage.

Information From Navarro County Rationing Board

Consumers are advised to keep their ration books by J. S. Murchison, chairman of the Navarro Price Panel and Rationing Board.

"The termination of the red rationing program does not mean that the books may not be needed sometime in the future," he said. Meats, fats, oils, margarine, lard and shortening were removed from the rationing program Saturday.

Murchison reminded merchants that they are expected to turn in all red tokens in a check to determine the amount of meat and the amount of coupons on hand at the termination of rationing.

Film Record Of Nazi Cruelty Shown to Court

NUERNBERG, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Ghastly scenes of nazi concentration camps were shown in motion pictures today to the international military tribunal but some of the Hitlerite leaders on trial sat with averted eyes during the showing of the grim film record of German cruelty.

The grisly pictures of mass murder sobered Reichsmarshal Herman Goering and others of the score of defendants who had grinned and laughed earlier as an American prosecutor disclosed the threats, bluffs and deceit with which Hitler softened up Austria for an unopposed invasion.

Rudolf Hess showed an interest in the trial for the first time, and followed the uncensored film closely.

Hermann Goering was described as the man who directed by telephone the blitz invasion of Austria after Austrian nazis paved the way by deposing Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg.

Assistant U. S. Prosecutor Sidney S. Alderman read in detail transcripts of telephone conversations between Goering and Austrian nazis on the days before and on the days of the unopposed invasion.

The records were found in the ruins of the Berlin air ministry building by Associated Press Correspondent Dan De Luce and given to the prosecution for evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Ferguson of Dallas were guests at the Navarro Hotel on Wednesday evening en route to College Station where they witnessed the State University-A. & M. football game today.

Chance Guard May Miss Tilt Gives Navy New Worry

By BUS HAM.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 29.—(AP)—Navy had an added worry today—whether Guard Jim Carrington will be able to play—as the Middies packed seabags to shove off for Philadelphia and Saturday's big game with army.

Carrington had a temperature of 100 before yesterday's last long workout, and the Middies' coach, Comdr. Oscar E. Hagberg, sent him to bed.

A doctor examined Carrington and told him it would not be a good idea to practice on a field soaked by a hard afternoon rain.

Hagberg said later that he expects Carrington to be ready to start against Army but a further check will be made in his condition before the squad leaves for Philadelphia this afternoon.

Should Carrington's illness hang on, Stan Turner, an experienced and able understudy, would be in line for the starting right guard position.

Two other Navy regulars, end Leon Bramlett and tackle Bo Coppedge, have shoulder injuries but Hagberg said they will "be in there Saturday."

After yesterday's drill, one of the longest of the season, Navy men said that the Middies realize they must go out and score three or four times to stay in the running with Army's mighty machine.

Army's Stars Threats.

They might well have pointed out it is almost inconceivable that the Middies will be able to tie up Army's super stars, Glenn Davis and "Doc" Blanchard, all afternoon.

"We've come along rapidly on the attack in our last few games," they added. "The team's spirit is the highest in years. Maybe that's because this is the first time in a long time that Navy is an established underdog. The Middies always are at their best under those conditions."

LSU's Bowl Bid Chances Hang On Tulane Battle

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 29.—(AP)—The Louisiana State University Tigers travel 80 miles to New Orleans Saturday for their annual meeting with Tulane's Green Wave and, possibly, to find out whether they take a longer trip for New Year's Day.

The Tigers have been mentioned prominently as candidates for the Orange Bowl or Cotton Bowl, but a defeat at the hands of their ancient and unpredictable Tulane foe would send them back to Baton Rouge until the 1946 football season rolls around.

"Santa Claus" Proposed Capital

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—While other folks propose sites for the United Nations capital, Rep. Grant (R-Ind) came up with this suggestion today:

It's time, he told a reporter, to choose a capital for UNRRA, lend-lease, the export-import Bank, the Bretton Woods monetary plan, and Uncle Sam's other loans and philanthropies.

His nomination: Santa Claus, Ind.

BYRON NELSON WILL BE HARD KEEP DOWN ON THAT NEW FARM

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DENTON, Tex., Nov. 29—(AP)—How you gonna keep Byron Nelson down on the farm when he can make $45,000 a year playing golf?

Nelson, who has often talked of the pleasures of rural life when in the midst of a tournament, sawed wood and fed the hogs today and spoke of golf as he neared the end of a vacation on his 50-acre farm near here.

Nelson chose golf as his profession in 1932. But he comes here each year for a vacation. Nelson, the farmer, is every bit as proficient as Nelson, the golfer.

"There's always something to do on a farm," he said as he took time out from his chores.

"When am I going to retire?" asked the game's top money winner. "I can't say. You see, I've increased my earnings every year since I turned professional. That first year I made exactly $930. It was tough going until 1937 when I really started clicking.

"Last year I made $35,000 (cash value of the War Bonds won); this year I've earned $45,000. And then, I love to play golf, you know."

Nelson often has commented on the strain and pressure of tournament golf and although he has been described as having ice-water in his veins he said that "a fellow really has to worry about his nervous system."

He's positive that the war set golf back four years "because the young fellows in the service didn't have time to practice and the older players simply got four years older." Nelson was a 4-F because of a blood condition.

The 33-year-old shot-maker returns to the golf tour on Dec. 14 in the Fort Worth, Tex., open.

SUPPLY OF QUAIL OVER STATE FAIRLY LARGE FOR SEASON OPENING

AUSTIN, Nov. 29.—(AP)—The supply of quail was fairly plentiful over the state, with the exception of regions where there was too much dry weather or too much wet weather in the growing season, for the opening of shooting Saturday.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

(By The Associated Press)

By. VICTOR EUBANK

NEW YORK, Nov. 29—(AP)—Strength of specialties, some of which climbed as much as ten points or so, steadied the stock market today although many pivotals failed to attract much support.

Assorted favorites posted highs for the past several years. Transfer totaled about 1,800,000 shares.

Individual situations, including splitups actual and expected, dividends, earnings and pressure of idle funds seeking income, served to receive a number of stocks President Truman optimism over reconversion and his inflation warning provided a bolstering influence.

In the "new high class were J. C. Penney, up around 10 points following a 3-for-1 split proposal; Eastern Air Lines, ahead some 8 points, on splitup talk and expansion plans; Houston Oil, on the clearing up of preferred arrears; Farnsworth Television, Philco, National Power & Light and Radio Corp.

Improved were Chrysler, Standard Oil (NJ), N. Y. Central, Northern Pacific, Boeing, Montgomery Ward and International Harvester. Among laggards were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Southern Railway, Great Northern, Anaconda, Du Pont, General Electric, Allied Chemical and Johns-Manville. Bonds were uneven.

ARMY-NAVY MERGER ATOMIC BOMB HOLD CONGRESS INTEREST

By MAX HALL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29—(AP)—Congress drove deeper today into the questions of atomic power, an Army-Navy merger, Pearl Harbor.

Purely domestic affairs took a back seat, although the House still was stirred up about flood control.

This was the situation:

Maj. Gen. L. R. Groves said America can stay ahead of all other countries "for all time to come" in making atomic bombs—if they all work in secrecy. The boss of the bomb project spoke to the Senate atomic committee.

H. Struve Hensel, assistant secretary of the Navy, accused the war department of muzling thought and ordering officers to follow a "military party line" for an Army-Navy merger. Te apepared ebfore the Senate military committee. The Navy is against a merger.

Pearl Harbor Probe Continues

Pearl Harbor investigators had a look at: Army intelligence estimates of Japan's plans in the months before the attack on Hawaii.

A message from Washington dated three days before Japan attacked Hawaii, telling naval attaches in Japan and parts of China to destroy codes.

Admiral Harold R. Stark, chief of naval operations, sent the message. Admiral Husband E. Kimmel, commander of the Pacific Fleet at Pearl Harbor, was marked in for a copy.

Chairman Barkley (D-Ky) announced that the investigating committee definitely would hear Gen. George C. Marshall before he takes off for Chungking to be American Ambassador to China.

Congressional developments with an international aspect:

Foreign policy—The Senate foreign relations committee prepared to hear Patrick J. Hurley explain in detail, perhaps Monday, why he resigned so suddenly and explosively as Ambassador to China.

But Chairman Tom Connally (D-Tex) turned a cold eye on a Republican proposal for an all-out investigation of the state department. The Hurley resignation caused a heated discussion in the Senate late yesterday.

World peace—The Senate limped into the fourth day of its debate on U. S participation in the United Nations organization. Thus far: lots of fiery speeches; lots of Senators absent; no voting.

Foreign relief—A bill paving the way for a $1,350,000,000 contribution to UNRRA, the second sum of that size asked of the U. S., has run into difficulties in the House rules committee.

Several committeemen, both Democrats and Republicans, told a reporter they want action postponed, pending more information. This bill has been approved by the foreign affairs committee after public hearings.

BILL TO RULE UNO REPRESENTATIVE FAILS IN SENATE

CONNALLY LEADS FIGHT AGAINST AMENDMENT TO "HAMPER" DELEGATES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—The senate rejected by a 41 to 18 vote today the initial attempt to tighten rules for United States participation in the United Nations Organization.

It defeated an amendment offered by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) to the legislation already approved unanimously by the senate foreign relations committee.

Taft said his amendment was a "mild rule" to be followed by the U. S. representative on the UNO security council.

Chairman Connally (D-Texas) opposed any attempt to "hamper" U. S. participation in UNO. Two Republicans, Vandenberg (R-Mich) and Austin (R-Vt) also opposed the Taft amendment.

Originally, Taft offered a 4-point amendment but just before the vote he revised this to leave a single section requiring that the U. S. representative on the UNO security council vote to "bring about a result in accord with international justice as well as international peace and security."

Vote Initial Test.

The vote came during the fourth day of senate debate on the legislation and was the initial test upon a long list of proposed amendments.

A barrage of words and amendments stalled senate action today on legislation to mesh this government's machinery with that of the infant United Nations Organization.

Weary but confident, Senator Connally (D-Texas) told a reporter that UNO supporters had ample voting strength "but no man can force the senate to vote when they want to keep on talking."

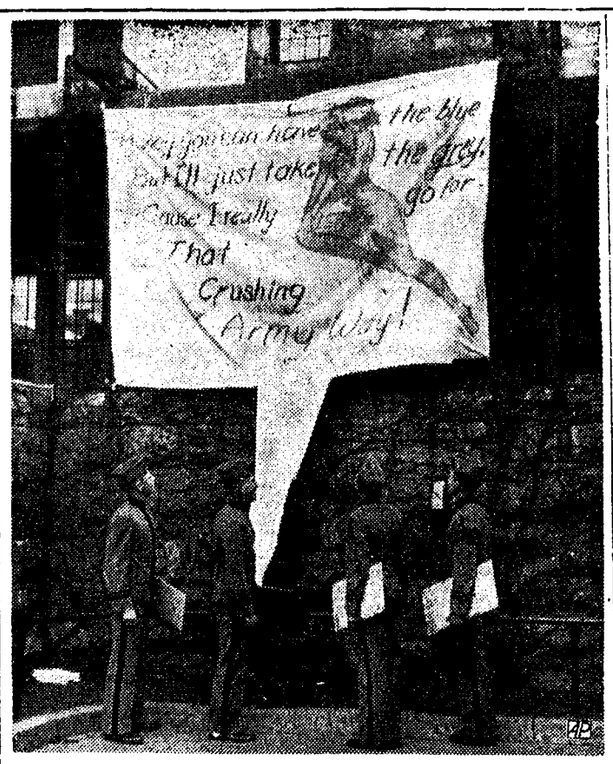

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo) declared this nation is "drifting toward war with Russia with certainty and speed." He called for approval of the pending bill without change because, he said, war with Russia "would mean suicide for both nations."

Johnson Proposes "Tough" Relations.

Johnson said it was time to get "rough and tough" in our relations with all the world, adding:

"With vision and guts and plenty of atomic bombs, ultra modern planes and strategically located air bases, the United States can outlaw wars of aggression."

Senator Morse (R-Ore) argued that before agreeing to use "economic or military sanctions" in settling any international disputes, the United Sttes should agree to be bound by any decisions of the court."

Fred Marberry, 1301 West Fifth avenue, escaped injury at his home this morning when the hot water heater he was lighting exploded.

The pilot light had gone out and gas collected in the heater and flue. When Marberry struck a match the heater blew up. There was slight damage to the house.

A truck from the city fire department answered the alarm at 11:10 and extinguished the blaze.

Russia Opposes Plan.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—The Soviet Union today opposed creation of a temporary trusteeship committee to deal with mandates and protectorates—one of the most controversial issues awaiting solution by the United Nations preparatory commission.

United States, British, South African and Australian delegates urged a temporary committee as a means of speeding up establishment of the regular trustee system.

CHARGE RUSSIANS THREATEN TO SEND TROOPS INTO IRAN

LONDON, Nov. 29.—(AP)—An Iranian embassy spokesman said in a statement today the Soviet government had threatened to reinforce Red army garrisons in Northern Iran if Iranian reinfocements were moved into that troubled region.

"The Soviet government, in reply to five notes from the Iranian government," the statement said, "have rejected the requst of the Iranian government for the dispatch of reinforcements to the disturbed areas of Northern Iran, with the threat that if reinforcements proceed to these districts the Soviet government will have to reinforce their own garrisons."

Insurgents Abandon Attempt.

TEHRAN, Iran, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Azerbaijan insurgent forces, swerving suddenly in their push down the main railroad toward Tehran, apparently had abandoned today any attempt to march upon the Iranian capital itself, but Iranian government troops maintained a vigilant watch in the capital.

Meanwhile it was disclosed officially that the Iranian government has received a note from the Soviet embassy in reply to Iran's protest that its military forces were being impeded by Russian authorities. The contents of the Soviet reply were kept secret, but the best informed sources described the note as unsatisfactory.

NINE MEN DEAD IN CRASH OF ARMY TRANSPORT PLANE

AUBURN, Calif., Nov. 29.—(AP)—Nine men are dead and 16 hospitalized with serious injuries as the result of a C-37 army transport plane crash near here last night, DeWitt General Army Hospital authorities said today.

The big craft, en route to McClellan field, Sacramento, from Palm Springs, Calif., plunged into a mountainside in rain-swept darkness about 7:30 p. m. PST and immediately caught fire.

All of the 22 passengers aboard are believed to have been Japanese Americans who fought with the Ninth air corps in Italy and were on their way to Camp Beale, Calif., separation center for discharge before being sent to their homes in Hawaii.

TWINS CAUSING CONFUSION IN SERVICE NOW HAVE EMPLOYES OF AMERICAN WELL SEEING DOUBLE

(Somewhat confused at the exhibit but not yet daunted, that will doubtless come later, officials of the American Well and Prospecting Company were pointing with pride to two good reasons for faith in the company's post war industrial program. These reasons are Palmer and Cliff Smith of Wortham, Texas, twins and veterans with identical service records, who will soon proceed about their new business of creating optical illusions for other workers in the machine shop along with their more serious technical duties as outlined by the plant' personnel department.

Combinations Intact

The greatest war in history, atomic bomb included, couldn't separate these Navarro county boys, and the prodigious job of filling public demand for peacetime goods, will find their combination intact.

Born December 10, 1915, Palmer and Cliff plowed side by side through six elementary grades in Corsicana schools. They completed high school in Currie, Texas, and turned to farming until their joint enlistment in the army in December, 1940.

In Same Company

They served in the same company, platoon and squad at Fort Sam Houston and duplicated the assignment during basic training at Camp Bowie. Sent to New Caledonia with the Military Police, they served 27 months overseas. Duties sometimes divided them but they wound up at the end of four years, nine months in uniform with the same rank—PFC! They were discharged the same day.

Their similarity of appearance caused the army sergeants as much trouble as General Truscott caused the Germans, and all three had origins within a 16 mile radius of Corsicana.

K. P. duties were a picnic for these two, especially when there was a chance to taunt the sergeant. One such assignment to the homey confines of a mess kitchen left this bewildered non-com wondering which one had served a two weeks stretch of duty—a stretch at which they had alternated!

Now they have signed up to the consternation of foreman and supervisors in the same department, at the American Well and Prospecting Company, at the same classification and on the same shift.

Miss Maurine Lane Is Severely Burned

Miss Maurine Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lane, Corsicana, route 3, is in the P. and S. Hospital suffering from severe burns received when the pilot from a gas stove ignited gasoline with which she was cleaning a floor in her father's grocery at 401 South Twentieth.

The accident occurred about 11:30 Thursday morning, and Miss Lane was rushed immediately to the local hospital, where it was reported that she had suffered severe burns on her arms and legs and some facial burns.

A small stock of groceries was damaged by the fire, which was extinguished by city firemen who answered the call.

Mexico's Tobacco Industry Grows.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Mexico's tobacco industry has shown rapid development during the past four years.

The department of economy said today that tobacco products produced during the past year were valued at 91,000,000 pesos ($18,200,000) on an investment of 116,000,000 pesos ($23,200,000) in the industry which employs 4,500 workers earning 10,000,000 pesos ($2,000,000) annually.

Four years ago the industry's output was valued at 60,000,000 pesos. At that time the investment in the obacco indusry was estimated at 91,000,000 pesos.

RELIEF WORKERS IN EUROPE DISMISSED FOR INCOMPETENCE

HERFORD, Germany, Nov. 29.—(AP)—Leo J. Margolin, chief of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration's information bureau in Europe, said in a statement today that 600 UNRRA employes had been dismissed for incompetence within the last few months.

He said most of those dismissed were nationals of European countries.

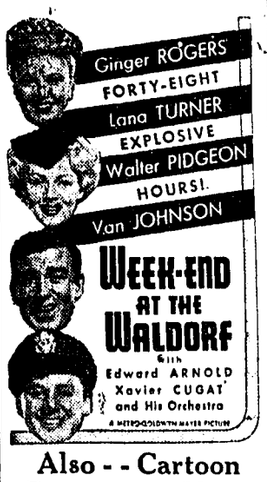

Margolin declared he wished to correct a previous Associated Press report which quoted him as saying 600 UNRRA workers, a majority of them Americans and British, had been dismissed, suspended or arrested.

(In London the European office of UNRRA said the previous report that the dismissals were in connection with a two-month investigation into black market activities in Germany "is completely inaccurate.")

"UNRRA officials are doing everything in their power to ferret out any incompetence and dishonesty in the ranks," Margolin's statement said. "The overwhelming majority of the UNRRA workers in Germany are honest, sincere and loyal and dedicated to the care of displaced persons who are innocent victims of war," his statement concluded.
